

Potassium Formate
Formula	CHKO2
CAS NO.	590-29-4
EINECS NO.	209-677-9
Purity	75% or 97%
Introduction	Potassium Formate Solution 75 % Min Potassium Formate fluids are excellent shale stabilizers for water-sensitive clay/shale formations and clay-containing sandstones.
	Potassium formate powder 97%min: Potassium Formate (KCHO2) powder is a high-purity, dry crystalline organic salt used to form clear brine used in workover and completion operations. It can be blended with sodium formate.
Appearance	liquid or white crystalline powder
Packing	solid in 25kgs woven bag and liquid in IBC plastic drum
Application	widely used in the completion fluid in oil field
	used as camouflage acid in leather industry used as reducing agent in printing and dyeing industry used as coagulator in cement used in the manufacture of carbon black

Superiority:

Our Superiority
Quality	We can provide SGS test when loading on the port, and we have ISO and other certificate.
Price	As our products have all the feather you need and cheaper compared with other brands, I strongly recommend it to you.
Packing	We can do what we can according to the customers' request.
Transport	The products can be transported by railway or sea.
Service	We can do our best to provide service for you, and let the customers not be worrying about the quality and delivery.
we can make mutual benefits through establishing business relations.

Storage

The product should be kept in shady, dry and ventilated warehouse, prevented from sun and rain, and positioned in some place away from heat and fire.